 - Continue with the established month-long assignment “March Madness” with songs done in Sign Language. Each day students are to watch 4 songs/ 2 song competitions they chose performed in sign language and choose the best between them based upon sign parameters, facial grammar, and performance. This will continue each week day until March 31st. Then students have the rest of the week to write an essay on what they discovered about variations of sign language (ASL, ESL, PSE), creating signed poetry/ songs with similar handshapes, and facial grammar.
- March 31- April 3
 - Students will reflect on the songs in the competition that stood out to them as well as why they agree/ disagree with the winning song taking the title of CHAMPION. This essay is due on April 3rd.
- April 6-10
 - Watch two videos on the cultural aspect of Deaf education with Deaf Schools and Mainstreaming. Follow directions on Google Doc.
